5. Please note that if your place of residence changes before the calling of your banns, you MUST let us know, so that we can publish them with the correct parish announced. There is a legal reason for this.

6. If your father is deceased, please indicate here, as well as his name.
7. Please be specific, as with your own occupation.
If he is retired, please indicate here, as well as his occupation.
This is the latest occupation held by your father, whether at present, or immediately prior to retirement or death.
8. Your parish church is not All Saints' unless you live within the geographical parish boundary. The correct parish is required for legal reasons.
If you are Roman Catholic, you must still find out which Anglican parish you live in.
Please use the following website to check your parish: www.achurchnearyou.com
12. Please be sure to sign your form as a declaration that the information is correct.
These details are used on the legal marriage documents: the registers and certificates.
