

Good Friday Reflections

John 18:1 – 19:42

Read the two chapters from John's Gospel. Meditate and pray about this familiar passage using the three images below.

Jesus' cross

Jesus is overwhelmed by the cross

The Crucifixion

When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died, my richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast save in the death of Christ, my God; all the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them through his blood.

See, from his head, his hands, his feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down;
did e'er such love and sorrow meet, or thorns compose so rich a crown!

His dying crimson, like a robe spreads o'er his body on the tree; then am I dead to all the globe, and all the globe is dead to me.

Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were a present far too small;
love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all.

Isaac Watts

Almighty Father,
look with mercy on this your family for which our Lord Jesus Christ was content to be betrayed and given up into the hands of sinners and to suffer death upon the cross; who is alive and glorified with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Eternal God,
in the cross of Jesus
we see the cost of our sin and the depth of your love: in humble hope and fear may we place at his feet all that we have and all that we are, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
